DESCENDANTS OF

JOSEPH AND REBECCA A.COTTLE GREEN

JOSEPH AND REBECCA WOULD HAVE COME DOWN FRON MASS.AND PROBABLY JOINED A TRAIN COMING WEST ON THE OLD NATIONAL ROAD (RT-40). AT THAT TIME,1814,THEY WOULD HAVE USED OXEN TO PULL THEIR WAGONS. THEY HAD A FAIRLY GOOD ROUTE TO COLUMBUS,OHIO,MEANING THE TRAIL HAD BEEN USED BEFORE AND THE GUIDE KNEW THE GENERAL PATH TO TAKE.

THEY BROUGHT CATTLE,SOME SMALLER ANIMALS AND THE HORSES ALONG WITH SPECIAL HOME FURNISHINGS,CLOTH AND BARRELS OF FLOUR,SUGAR AND OTHER STAPLES.

WHEN THEY LEFT COLUMBUS THEY WERE ON MOSTLY UNCHARTERED TERRITORY HEADING TOWARD CINCINNATTI.THERE WERE FEW PEOPLE IN THIS AREA BUT IT WAS ALREADY BEGINNING TO SECTION OFF THE LAND FROM THE GOVERNMENT. I HAVE NOT BEEN THERE TO OBTAIN THE LAND DEEDS BUT HOPE TO GET THOSE OF JOSEPH AND THE OTHER MEMBERS SOON. ARRIVING IN THE SOUTHWESTERN PART OF CINN. IT WAS DESOLATE,LONELY AND HAD LITTLE IN THE WAY OF CLEARED LAND.

THEY OWNED LAND FROM COLUMBUS TO CINCINNATTI TO THE NORTH IN WARREN CO.,SHELBY CO.SOME OTHER NEAR BY COUNTIES.

BEING PROMINENT THEY WERE INVOLVED IN LOCAL GOVENMENT AFFAIRS.

I am on some very promising leads as to the parents of joseph but since these are unconfirmed at this time I will not include in this portion.

THERE MAY BE ERRORS,BLANK SPACES THAT NEED TO BE SENT TO ME ,I WILL AFTER A TIME FORWARD NEW SHEETS TO BE ADDED TO THIS BOOKLET.

I HOPE YOU ENJOY READING A LITTLE ABOUT THE GREEN'S
I HAVE A LOT MORE AND WILL ADD TO THIS AND AM DOING THE STEWARTS, VALENTINES,LIPPINCOTTS,HATHAWAYS ELWELLS,AND MANY OTHERS.THESE ARE THE MOST PROMINENT NAMES JOINING THE GREEN NAME SO I TEND TO WORK ON THEM A LITTLE MORE .

HAPPY READING......ANY HELP IS WELCOME...CORRECTIONS NEEDED...

LOVE YA. ! Lucy

Notes

Joseph Green: Was born in Mass. in 1790. Have not identified his parents yet.

In 1814 he married Rebecca A.Cottle , that same year they traveled to Ohio,probably along the National Rd. (40 now as they settled in Cincinnati.
Working there for several years at the carpenter trade. He then purchased land in the western part of Hamilton Co.Oh.
He then moved his family here where they stayed until 1824, then moved to Warren Co.,Oh. remaining until 1832.
At this time they came north into Shelby Co.,Dinsmore twp.(not sure what twp.
it was at that time but is now dinsmore).
The first election in the twp. was held in his home,spring of 1833.

At the time Mr.Green first came to Shelby Co. his family consisted of his wife and six children. This portion of the county was entirely unimproved and their cows had to run in the woods for pasture.It was not long before they discovered that milk sickness was in the area.
Their cattle and hogs died from the effects of it. Several persons died of the same,among them were Joseph's wife
Rebecca and two of their daughters.Discourged aand filled with dispair Joseph took his ,now smaller,family and returned to Hamilton Co, where they remained until his death in 1834.
Much of the above is listed in : History of Shelby Co.,Ohio in 1862 and also in Hamilton Co. History.
Joseph was buried at the old Deerfield Cemetary (was in Hamilton Co.) now at South Lebanon(Warren Co.) in the new cemetary. They just moved the stones from the old cemetary and stacked them at the bottem of the hill in the newer cem. We have been there and were appalled at what they had done. It is impossible to read the stones as they are all bunched together.

some information on the Green clan came from:
Bernadine Green (Mrs Frank)Edgington,104 State Route 235,St.Paris,Ohio 43072.
To this date I have not been able to confirm the parentage of Joseph but will continue to gather info. 30 June.1998

nership with Mr. B. Rolling, and they are now conducting a large and lucrative business. In their large and well-kept establishment can be found a complete stock of all lines of goods kept in a general retail store, and all who call to see them will be assured of good treatment. Cook & Rolling are also prominent dealers in coal, handling a number of car-loads during the year. Mr. Cook's business career has been a success, as he has accumulated quite a competency, and is taking life easily, looking after the outdoor business. He has never attached himself to any of the churches of the land, but has always been a Democrat, upon all national issues voting with that party.

Fact Sheet on Phoebe Green (Joseph Daughter)

LUCIUS A. COTTLE, physician and surgeon, P. O., Maineville, is one of the oldest practicing physicians in Warren Co. He was born in Farmington, Me., Oct. 18, 1815, and is a son of Dr. John and Thirza (Porter) Cottle. Dr. John was born in Martha's Vineyard, Sept. 26, 1780. His wife was born in Somerset Co., Me., in 1789. He chose medicine and surgery as his profession, and was a graduate of a Massachusetts school, after which he practiced six years in the State of Maine. He was married to Thirza, daughter of Col. Porter, in 1806. In 1818 he, with his wife and five children, emigrated westward, and at Olean, N. Y., met John Grosbeck and family, with whom they continued their journey on flat-boats down the Ohio, and landed in Cincinnati in November of the same year. Soon after he removed to Maineville, where he entered upon the practice of his profession, in which he was successful, having built up an enviable reputation as a skilful physician. For 30 years he practiced uninterruptedly and accumulated considerable wealth, which would have been largely augmented had he collected closely. The territory over which he rode was extensive, and he never failed to respond to those who summoned his assistance. Several years before his death he relinquished much of his practice, and attended only calls to extreme cases, or to consult with other physicians. He died in 1853. His wife survived him and departed this life in 1865. Both were prominent members of the Free Will Baptist Church, to which they belonged from the date of their settlement in Maineville. He also belonged to the order of Masonry, and was an advanced and worthy member. The rudiments of our subject's education were received in the subscription schools, which were afterward developed in the Miami University at Oxford, O. On account of failing health he was obliged to relinquish his fond anticipation for a collegiate course for the time being and return home, where he finished his literary education under the tutorage of his father, who was a thorough scholar and a fine linguist. At the age of 15 he began the study of medicine under the direction of his father, who was his professional preceptor until the winter of 1834-35, when he entered the Ohio Medical College at Cincinnati, where he took his first course of lectures. During the above time he witnessed the hanging of Cowan, in penalty of the fearful crime of murdering his wife and children. He then entered on the practice with his father, and eventually began reading under Dr. Muzzy, of Cincinnati, and took other courses of lectures in the same institution, from which he received a diploma of graduation in 1842. Immediately he entered upon his practice at Maineville, and with the exception of a single year he was located in Deerfield, has resided in Maineville since. He has always enjoyed a large and lucrative practice, and is a well-read and skilful physician. Oct. 19, 1836, he was married to Adaline, daughter of the Rev. D. Dudley, of Butler Co., O., who bore him two children—one living, viz: Pliny; John C., deceased. Mrs. C. died Nov. 3, 1843. His second marriage was celebrated with Anchor C., daughter of Absalom Death, of Franklin, O., who bore him seven children, six of whom are living, viz: John A., Wyman A. W., Lucius C., Eva J., Thirza and Ida M. Susan, the eldest, deceased. Mrs. C. died April 10, 1860. His third and last marriage was celebrated with Mrs. Phoebe Shawhan, daughter of Joseph Greene, Aug. 15, 1860. The Doctor was surgeon of the 2d Brigade and 19th Div. of the Ohio militia for seven years. His father was surgeon of this same corps for five years previous. Our subject was afterwards appointed Adjutant of the same command, best known and prominent citizens of this section of the state. They had twelve children, eight of whom grew to maturity, but all but two have now passed away, she being survived only by her two daughters—Miss Clara Conklin, of this city, and Mrs. B. D. Wikoff, of Chicago, and eight grand children. Judge Conklin died about twenty years ago.

For the past several years she had had been making her home with her daughters, Mrs. R. O. Bingham, who died several months ago, and Miss Clara Conklin, on south Ohio avenue.

Since her childhood she had been a member of the M. E. church, was a very consistent Christian and during her life took a great interest in the work of the church.

GREEN.

William Green, Sr., for many years a prominent and highly respected resident of Shelby county, died at the home of his son, William, on Clinton avenue Monday evening about 9:30 o'clock after an extended illness. The immediate cause of his death was capillary pneumonia but his extreme age rapidly hastened the end.

The deceased was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, in 1820, and at the age of twelve years came to Shelby county with his parents, locating in Orange township. He returned with his father to Hamilton county and remained there and in Cincinnati for about one year. He then went to Warren county where he worked by the day and month getting work as best he could part of the time getting only four dollars per month. In 1842 he was married to Miss Phoebe Elwell and immediately returned to Shelby county where they landed in the fall of 1842, with just one dollar in cash to commence life with. From this beginning Mr. Green made for himself and family a comfortable home and raised a large family of children, nine sons and two daughters—Joseph, Martha, John, William, Charles, Emerson, Albert, George, Dora, Clarence and Justice. Two of the sons have passed away. Every dollar he made was by the hard work of his own hands except forty acres of wild land. He resided in Dinsmore township for many years. In 1873 he sold his farm in Dinsmore township and bought one in Orange township where he lived for many years a retired life. About service is as good as furnished in the cities by metropolitan daily newspapers. That our readers appreciated the earnest efforts of THE NEWS to give the best service possible was also indicated by the large number of calls for extra copies of the paper.

THE SHELBY COUNTY DEMOCRAT, the weekly edition of THE NEWS, also took care of its readers. An extra edition of THE DEMOCRAT, containing the full account, was printed and mailed to all subscribers of THE DEMOCRAT. That the several thousand suscribers of THE DEMOCRAT appreciated this is evidenced by the fact that many read the full account in the paper at their homes in the country Saturday before coming to town. Many called at the office Saturday and expressed their appreciation of the service given them by THE DEMOCRAT.

Twenty-six Representatives, members of the special congressional committee, sent to Panama by President Taft to report on the progress of the work on the canal, arrived in New York on the Panama Monday. Representative J. A. Goulden, of the Bronx chairman of the committee, said that with a few exceptions, all the members had been agreeably surprised with the progress of the work.

"Many of us were of the opinion when we left for the canal on April 14, that the sea level plan was more desirable than the lock project," said Mr. Goulden. "A week's study of the condition, however, changed our opinions."

Representative H. F. Conroy, of New York, said that the principal objection to the sea level plan was the action of the tide. "The tide rises to a height of 20 feet on the Pacific side of the isthmus," he said, "while the rise on the opposite side is several feet less and at different times of day and night. I was a strong supporter of the sea level scheme until these facts were made clear to me by personal investigation."

If Governor Judson Harmon can force the issue the next Ohio campaign will be fought out on the question of taxation reform, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. First of all he purposes to carry a hard, aggressive fight for increased revenues and a general readjustment of the taxation laws to the floor of the General Assmebly.

The Governor already is considering the outline of a message to be sent to the Legislature on the day it convenes which he hopes will arouse the entire state. As chief executive he wishes to focus attention on what he believes to be the biggest and most pressing problem before the people of Ohio. In his opinion the present revenue raising measures and in many respects the entire taxation system is fifty years behind the times.

Masonic Lodge Inspected.

The Port Jefferson Lodge, F. & A. Masons, was inspected Wednesday evening by Rill T. Baker, of Greenville. He came to Sidney in the afternoon and was accompanied to Port Jefferson by W. T. McLean, W. A. Perry, Ed Mede, T. E. Epler, J. H. Millikin, E. C. Mumford, Jesse L. Frazier, Kerr Carey and Charles Neal. There were also a number of members from Jackson Center and Dekraft. The lodge was inspected and the Master's degree conferred on one candidate. The work of the lodge was very satisfactorily put on. Late in the evening a banquet was William Green, who has been ill with pneumonia, which followed an attack of grip, died at his home on Clinton avenue at one o'clock Friday afternoon, aged fifty-nine years. He was born and raised on a farm near Anna and about thirty-six years ago was married to Catharine Lippincott, of Anna. He lived for several years on a farm near Anna and afterwards engaged in the grocery business in Anna. Several years ago he moved to Sidney and has since been employed as one of the engineers at the water works. He was a man of very fine traits of character and was popular with all who knew him. He leaves besides his wife, two children, Roy G. Green, of this place, and Mrs. Daisy Fox, of Miamisburg. No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

William Green, Jr., son of William, Sr., and Phoebe Jane Green, died Friday, April 30th, A. D. 1909, at his home on Clinton avenue at 1 p. m. having reached the age of 59 years, 7 months and 25 days. His death was due to pneumonia. He was born September 5th, A. D. 1849, on what is known as the old Thirkield farm, now the present site of Anna, Ohio, in that part of the town which lies in Dinsmore township. Later on his father sold this farm and bought another farm just east of Anna, known now as the old Davis farm. Here he spent the remainder of his boyhood days helping his father on the farm until November 30th, 1871, when he was united in marriage with Miss Katharine Harrette Lippincott, then residing in Anna. After Mr. Green's marriage he continued his occupation as farmer near his father's place until Feb., 1878, when he moved to his father's farm southwest of Anna, in Franklin township.

Here he lived a successful farmer and acquired quite a reputation as a raiser of fancy Poland China hogs. In this business he excelled, procuring many premiums at the various county fairs at which he displayed his stock. This he continued until December, 1892, when he quit farming and again moved to Anna, going into the grocery and bakery business. This he followed until 1895, when he sold out his business. After this he followed various occupations at Marion and Muncie, Indiana, until 1902.

Mr. Green then returned to Sidney where he took a position with the R. Given Sons Company. This position he held for about two years when he accepted a position as engineer at the City Water Works. This position he held for about five years and which position he held when taken down with his last illness.

Mr. Green was a kind and loving husband and father, very thoughtful of his family, possessed of many friends and a Christian man, having given his heart to God and joined the M. E. church at Anna in 1862 at the age of thirteen. He was active in church and Sunday school work until 1895 when he left Anna. After leaving there and until moving to Sidney he was never permanently loacted and never transferred his membership. While not active in church work after leaving Anna and up until death his actions and every day life were those of a Christian man, one of his last expressions being that he was ready to go.

Mr. Green was the father of two children, Roy G., of this city, and Mrs. Daisy M. Fox, of Miamisburg, Ohio, and leaves to mourn his loss, his beloved wife, son and daughter, four grand children, six brothers and two sisters, besides a host of friends and neighbors.

the respect and esteem of all political parties as he was always honest and just in politics as well as in business. He was a member of the Shelby county fair board from Washington township for the present year.

He was a member of the G. A. R. and also of Orange Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Kirkwood. The above organizations had charge of the funeral which was held from the late home in Lockington Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock. He has three brothers living in California, who left Miami county about twenty years ago, John P., Henry and Thomas and also has two sisters who reside in Ohio, Mrs. Mary Watkins, of Warren county, and Miss Julia Johnston, of Shelby county. Mr. Johnston will be missed by a large circle of friends and relatives and many a poor man whom he had helped in distress. He was well liked and highly esteemed by every one who knew him and with whom he did business. He was a member of the Disciple church of Piqua. Interment was at Beechwood cemetery.

Piqua Carpenters on a Strike.

Monday morning all the union carpenters in Piqua went out on a strike. Fifty of seventy-five men are included in the walkout. The strike is to compel the contractors to accept the union's scale of wages.

The scale of the carpenters was laid before the contractors three months ago, but no action has been taken up Monday. The carpenters were willing to arbitrate, but their demands were ignored. The men demand 28 cents an hour, 35 cents for floor dressing, 35 cents for foremen, a ten hour day and a Saturday half holiday.

National Organizer H. R. Kline, of Dayton, is in Piqua and is directing the carpenters' end of the strike.

With an unparalleled amount of building in sight for this season, a prolonged strike on the part of the carpenters would be disastrous in many directions.

Contractors who have work contracted for before the scale was presented are not affected. Those who have taken work to be done within a time limit are the hardest hit. The men are quiet and there has been no disorder.

Manager Cereal Company.

The Porstmouth Daily Times of Tuesday contained the following:

"C. B. Halboth, the expert engaged by the Portsmouth Cereal Company to take charge of the plant, arrived here from the east Monday to assume his new duties. The general manager of the plant comes fortified with years of experience, having been identified with some of the leading concerns of the country in responsible capacities. Mr Holboth is a native of Ohio. He was born and reared at Pemberton, a small town near Sidney. For years he was employed with the Woolson Spice company of Toledo. Later he became connected with the sales department of the American Hominy company, with general headquarters at Indianapolis. He was transferred to the company's New York office in January. It is hoped to place the local plant in operation within four weeks and meanwhile the company will give the plant a complete overhauling add new and latest improved machinery and increase the capacity. It was intended to adopt the name of the Buckeye Cereal company, but the incorporators have just been informed by the secretary of state that there is a plant of the kind under that name in Ohio. Accordingly a new name will have to be selected and it will not always that tied up. I do try to keep busy though.

My cousin Bill Fox sent these drawings to me last month. He said he was cleaning house + found them. Lester had given them to him years ago. Probably 1917 or 1918. Lester was quite an artist + he drew sketches for the local paper. Bill Fox is my Dads sisters boy. He lived with us for a short time after his mother died. I am glad Lester signed one of them.

Aunt Katie sent pictures + note.

THE DEATH OF LESTER GREEN

PASSED AWAY AT THE HOME OF HIS PARENTS SUNDAY

Many hearts were saddened Sunday when the report of the death of Lester H Green quickly passed through the city. He died about two oclock at his home on Clinton avenue after an illness extending over a period of seven weeks.

About a year ago he had suffered a severe attack of tonsilitis which resulted in an extended illness of infleminatory rheumatism which left him with a leak heart. At this time he was ill from January to May, but he recoverd sufficiently to be able to resume his studies at school.

He attended school until Christmas when was it feared he would have another attack of inflammatory rheumatism and he had his tonsils removed early in January. He recoverd from the operation nicely but other complications set in and his death Sunday was due to heart trouble.

He was a boy of lovable disposition having a large circle of friends, he was popular in school being president of the Junior class and manager of the Foot ball team last year. He took a great interest in all things athletic.

In all his sickness and suffering he was always patent and uncomplaining

Lester Hathaway Green was born January 22 1903 the son of Mr and Mrs Roy Green who with one brother and one sister, Katherine survive him

He leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

Funeral services will be held at the M E Church Wednesday morning at 10 oclock.

GREEN

Lester Hathaway Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Green, was born in Sidney Jan. 22, 1903.

When 12 years of age, during the evangelistic services conducted by Dr. Oliver, he gave his heart to God, and later joined the church under the pastorate of Dr. Armington. Thus early in life before the evil days come not, he was nurtured in Christian living, which he exemplified in the Sunday school as a mebmer of the "Gymnasium Class," in the Epworth League as a faithful attendant and in the Y. M. G. A. as an enthusiastic worker.

He enjoyed his church activities and was always present when his health permitted him to do so. In High school as president of the Junior class and as captain of the foot ball team, he was loved by all. On Sunday Feb. 20 after a several months illness, at the age of 18 years, he passed to where there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.

A father, a mother, a sister Katharine, a brother Othel, two grandmothers, Mrs. Bell Hathaway and Mrs. Katharine Green, beside a host of friends and relatives survive him.

We cannot say, and will not say,
That Lester is dead—He is just away.
With a cherry smile, and a wave of the hand, he has wandered into an unknown land.
Think of him faring on, as dear in the love of There as in the love of Here,
Thi as the same,
  is just away.

Dear Lucy,

I think this is such a good picture - I've been enjoying the genealogy book you worked so hard on putting together. I really appreciate the long hours and the thought that went into it.

It's fun to read accounts of their death and to see pictures I remember from scrapbooks. On back side of 27th page

Funeral Services Sunday Afternoon From Son's Home

Relatives and friends were grieved Friday when announcement was made of the death of Roy G. Green, of Troy, formerly a prominent resident of this city, who passed away early Friday morning at the Stouder Hospital in Troy.

The condition of Mr. Green had been serious for the past week when peritonitis developed following an abdominal operation performed on Tuesday, June 13th. However his friends were hopeful for his recovery and the message telling of his death was a sad shock.

Mr. Green had spent the greater part of his life in Sidney and for twelve years was associated with the business life of the city. He conducted the Green Battery Service, the business located at the coroner of North and Main avenue. For sixteen years previous to opening the service station he was the efficient engineer at the plant of the former Hickok Candy Company.

Two years ago he moved from Sidney when he accepted the position of engineer for the Miami County Children's Home at Troy, Mrs. Green accompanying him there and accepting the position as matron over the boys at the Home.

The deceased had been in failing health since he suffered an attack of influenza in January and when his condition became more severe a few weeks ago, he submitted to an operation with the hope of regaining his health.

Roy G. Green was born on October 24, 1874, in Anna and was a son of the late William and Katherine Harriet Green. He was the last of that family to pass away, his only sister, Mrs. Daisy Fox, of Dayton, passing away several years ago.

He was united in marriage with Miss Bessie Hathaway of this city on December 31, 1899, and three children were born to their union, two of whom survive with his widow, Mrs. Katherine Green White of Detroit, Mich., and Othel L. Green of this city. One son, Lester, died a number of years ago. Five grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Green possessed an admirable character and was held in the highest esteem by his many friends and business associates. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and Sunday School, serving in various capacities with the Sidney church while a resident here and on moving to Miami county transferred his membership to the Methodist Church at Casstown.

The remains were removed from Stouder hosptial to the O. B. Taylor Funeral Home and Saturday noon will be removed to the home of his son, Othel L. Green at 615 East Johnston Drive, where friends may call anytime Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday morning.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Green home at two-thirty o'clock Sunday afternoon by Rev. Barker of Casstown. Burial will be made at Graceland cemetery.

HATHAWAY

In the passing of Mrs. Margaret Isabelle Hathaway, one of our oldest and most beloved citizens has gone to her reward.

On Thursday evening Jan 24 as the day was closing, her spirit winged its flight to her Heavenly Father.

For eighty years she was permitted to live among us. She being the daughter of Christian parents, Rev David and Catherine Rhinehart, it was not difficult for her to adapt herself to the livelihood of being a minister's wife that of Rev. D. H. Hathaway, who preceded her, to the spirit word Feb 4 1912.

She was united in marriage with Rev. Hathaway Dec 28 1870.

This union was blessed with six children, one dying in infancy.

The family so sorely bereft are the remaining children, Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Alonzo Shaw, Misses Adda and Laura Hathaway of Sidney Mr. Ernest Hathaway of Tippecanoe City Ohio also a sister Mrs. M. K. Coon of Hardin. Ten grand children and five great grand children.

Mrs. Hathaway was a faithful and life time member of the M. E. Church. Always being of great service in all of its activities until her health failed.

She was also a member of the W. C. T. U. organization and of the Neal Relief Corps.

Mrs. Hathaway had many friends who esteemed her highly for her work's sake, because hers was a life marked by unselfish service for others.

She thought not of herself and of her own pleasure but of those whom she loved and whom she might help.

Our Saviour once said, If any would be chief among you let him be as a servant. If any would be great let him be him be servant of all.

Judged by this standard, our sister was one of the great ones of earth, for she gave her life in service for others.

She loved her home and family, her friends and her Lord.

Such a life can not die. It will live on in the good influence it has exerted, in the good deeds it has wrought in the memory of those she loved and will live on too, we believe consciously in our Father's house, where there are many dwelling places.

She rests from her labors but her orks follow her.

"I can not say and I will not say.

MRS. ROY GREEN SUFFERS STROKE, DIES SUDDENLY

One of the Best Known Residents of Sidney. Funeral Services Monday Afternoon

The sudden death of Mrs. Bessie Hathaway Green, 54, widow of Roy L. Green, which occurred at eight o'clock Friday evening, was a sad shock to the community.

Mrs. Green was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage about ten o'clock Friday morning at the home of J. F. and Miss Elizabeth Russell on North West ave, where she was a nurse. Her condition remained serious throughout the day and during the evening she was removed to the Wilson Memorial Hospital. She died about fifteen minutes after being admitted there.

The deceased was one of the best known and beloved residents of Sidney and until the past few years had always made her home here. She was the daughter of the late Rev. G. W. and Isabell athaway, and was born in Shelby county on April 2, 1880. Her father was a minister in the M. E. Church, his pastorates including several churches in this county.

She was united in marriage with the late Roy L. Green, who preceded her in death by eighteen months. He was a former Sidney business man, and the family resided here until a few years before his death. They located in Casstown, later going to Troy where he was an engineer at the Troy Children's Home, and Mrs. Green was the matron over the boys of that home. Following his death a year ago last June, she resigned and spent the greater part of her time with her two children Othel L. Green, of this city, and Mrs. W. H. White, of Detroit, Mich. Last fall she returned to Sidney from Detroit to do practical nursing at the Russell home.

Mrs. Green was a faithful member of the M. E. church and Sunday school and a member of several of the women's organizations of the church. She was also a member of the Medley club; of the Susan Mercer Warwick Tent, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, and of the W. C. T. U.

Surviving with her son and daughter are, three sisters, Miss Laura Hathaway, Miss Addie Hathaway, Mrs. A. E. Shaw, one brother, E. L. Hathaway, of Tippecanoe City, and five grand children, Beth Ann, Jack and Lester Green, Sidney, Bobbie and Billy White of Detroit, Mich.

Funeral services held Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the home of her son, Othel Green, Johnston Drive, and interment made in Graceland cemetery.

Friends may call at the home at anytime.

D. U. V. Meeting Friday Memorial for Mrs. Green Given.

The Daughters of Union Veterans held their regular meeting Friday evening in the D. of I. hall. The president Mrs. Howard Grant presided.

During the opening exercises a beautiful memorial service was held for Mrs. Bessie Green, the chaplin Mrs. Sargeant accompanied by the color bearers placed a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and draped the charter in her memory. Mrs. Green was a charter member of Susan Mercer Warwick Tent 107 Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, 1861-1865. and was a member of their first council. Mrs. Kay Williams read the following memorial:

"Once again the grim Reaper has entered our midst and taken from us one whom we all loved and respected, one whom we were all proud to call our friend. Sister Green was a loyal member, a willing worker, a true patriot, and a Christian woman. As a charter member of Susan Mercer Warwick Tent, she took an active and worthwhile part in our organization. Her passing we all regret very deeply.

"To the bereaved family we extend our heartfelt sympathy. We feel that our burdens have been made lighter and our joys sweeter by having had her with us. May our fond recollections and pleasant remembrances of her enthusiasm be an inspiration to us to carry on."

Mrs. Elmer Snyder sweetly sang "Lead Kindly Light" accompanied by Mrs. I. W. Hedges.

The visiting committee with Mrs. Charles Richards as chairman, reported a large number of visits to comrades and widows, the distribution of gifts to comrades, Christmas Greeting cards sent to the widows and flowers to the sick and bereaved. A number of those remembered sent cards to thank the Daughters for their remembrance.

Plans were made for the Installation dinner to be held at the Methodist church Friday evening Jan. 11th at 6:30 sharp. The Dayton, Greenville, Lima and Piqua Tents will be invited.

Greeting

Hymn "In The Garden"

I come to the garden alone, While the dew is still on the roses,
And the voice I hear, Falling on my ear, The Son of God discloses.

Refrain: And He walks with me, and He talks with me,
And He tells me I am His own;
And the joy we share as we tarry there, None other has ever known.

He speaks, and the sound of His voice
Is so sweet the birds hush their singing,
And the melody That He gave to me, Within my heart is ringing.

Refrain:

I'd stay in the garden with Him
Though the night around me be falling, But He bids me go;
Through the voice of woe His voice to me is calling.

Hymn "How Great Thou Art"

O, Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed;

Refrain: Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing, Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin;

Refrain:

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration,
And there proclaim, my God, how great Thou art!

The Women Around Us

By Carol McNally

"It's always more important to prove what you can do in your chosen vocation rather than try to rest on past successes," states Nell Green, former professional dancer and now full-time teacher.

Miss Green teaches ballroom, ballet and tap and points out that all three have real value although the student doesn't ever consider a professional career.

Ballet, of course, provides the fundamentals, while tap gives the necessary rhythm and co-ordination. Ballroom gives, if nothing else, more self-assurance to the individual.

The teacher must not only be able to teach dancing, but must have had experience as well. Miss Green teaches and has a great deal of professional background.

'Make-believe' Dancing

She grew up on a farm in Ohio and went away to school at an early age. Originally she wanted to be a concert pianist and, accordingly, she studied music at Ohio Northern University. From there she went on to be a graduate teacher of music from Proctor School of Music, Dayton.

Nell Green

However, all the time she was playing the piano, she was also "make-believe" dancing: originating her own steps to music she heard and making waltzes and tangos come to life with her own feet and body.

Miss Green studied dancing from a number of renowned teachers in New York City and Chicago. Among them were Donald Sawyer and Steffie Nossen, New York, and Gladys Hight and Berniece Holmes, Chicago. She is a graduate, too, of the John Robert Powers' School.

Her greatest love as a professional was ballet and exhibition dancing. However, she contracted a paralysis and her legs do not properly support her now. This is the main reason she has given up teaching acrobatic dancing.

Miss Green stresses the importance of never being humiliating to her students. She points to the time when she was told she danced like a cow and says that will never happen in any of her classes.

Also, she emphasizes the importance of basics and consistent practice in dancing. She does her own choreography for the revues of her classes and has even compiled her own ballet book with records to enable students to remember steps and French terms.

Her husband, George Macdonald, is her office manager and also teaches ballroom dancing. Most of her spare time is spent writing dances, arranging music and outlining programs. In between seasons she goes to Mexico City and Florida where she has a busman's holiday — you guessed it, visiting dancing schools.

Miss Green points out that there is real rejuvenation in seeing how other schools operate and learning new teaching methods.

As her husband likes sports, the Macdonalds take in quite a few sporting events, football games in particular. Of course, her main interest is her three children by her first marriage. One of her daughters was her teaching partner for some time.

Miss Green takes children as young as 3½, but limits her class size to 12. As a teacher with primary interest in ballet, she states "the good that is derived from ballet includes more grace, better posture, development of personality and more self-assurance."

Tutors to Hear Success Story

The volunteer tutors of the Fort Wayne Literacy Council (Laubach Affiliate) will be entertained at a tea Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in McKay Hall of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. George Macdonald of Fort Wayne, herself a Laubach tutor and the former director of the Nell Greene Dance Studio, will talk to the volunteers and their husbands and wives about her granddaughter, Miss Laurie Greene, who is a successful student of the Laubach method.

Born 17 years ago in Mexico City, the second child of John R. Greene and his Mexican wife, Esperanza, Laurie's delivery was difficult and doctors believed she would never walk or talk as a result of brain damage. However, when Laurie was two, the family moved to Fort Wayne and during the two years they spent here, Laurie did learn to walk.

After returning to Mexico, Laurie studied at a private school and, with private tutoring, was able to learn Spanish. When she was about 13, Laurie spent the Summer here with Mrs. Macdonald and attended Fairfield Junior High School to learn English. It was at that time a Laubach tutor, Mrs. Lyall Morrill, began teaching Laurie reading and writing and Mrs. Virginia Withey taught her the correct pronunciation of English. Mrs. Morrill worked with Laurie for the next two years while she attended school here and the tutoring system proved so beneficial to her that she was able to attend Chicago Junior School in Elgin, Ill.

She now has reading and writing ability in English approaching the fifth grade level and has returned to Mexico City. She is attending business school there and will return to Fort Wayne for further training this Summer.

Mrs. Macdonald also will tell the volunteers of her search in Mexico City to find a teacher with Laubach training and of the work of the Laubach Literacy Council in that area.

Dear Aunt Lucy & Aunt Kay,
(my geneologist specialists: Lucy- Laurel's side Kay- Alfie's side)

Just came across "family" info you both had sent me years ago and at that time, you both had requested more info about Alfie's and my families.
Not sure if I sent you each the family info you requested, so am popping a package to both of you in the mail tomorrow-Satuday, Aug 21st.

If you are both still interested in finding out more - it would probably be best to contact each other directly (I'm obviously not that reliable-lol)

Below is each of your contact information so that it will be easier to communicate - please let me know if there are any corrections:

Lippincott's in Eng and Amer GC 929.2 L6666 l

M, Wm Green &

"These are to will and require you, on sight thereof, to set at liberty Richard Lippincott, Thomas Hooton and Margaret Kellam, wife of John Kellam, now in your Gaol, for which this shall be your sufficient Warrant. Given under my hand and seal this 13 day of Feb. 1655. JOHN COPPLESTONE.

"To THOMAS DIGHT, Keeper of the Gaol near the Castle of Exon."

Margaret Kellam had been shamefully and cruelly abused by the Mayor of Plymouth. Having felt "concerned to go to his house and tell him she had a Word from the Lord to him; he bade her come in, heard her, and confessed that what she said, was very good and true. Nevertheless the Truth she uttered so displeased him that he sent her to prison where she was about a week, and at the intercession of her Friends, had some liberty granted her. But on the 4th of next month, about four in the morning, a Constable and serjeant came to her chamber, broke open the door, and refusing to shew their warrant, took her away by violence, tied a rope about her, threw her on a horse's back, bound her arms behind her, tied her feet under the horse's belly, and carried her in that inhuman manner ten miles (a monstrous barbarity to a tender woman of good education and considerable fortune). Then they loosed her cords and told her they had a warrant to carry her to Exeter Gaol. There she lay till the Quarter Sessions, when endeavours were used to get an indictment drawn up against her; but the Clerk of the Sessions and others employed in that work, could not agree about it, her manifest innocence baffling their attempt. After about two months imprisonment she was released by order of the Sheriff."

During the ensuing five years Richard Lippincott appears to have enjoyed a good degree of peace, since we do not find that he was disturbed in the performance of his religious duties. He continued to reside at Stonehouse, a suburb of Plymouth.

On the 1st of 7th month, 1655,(?) another son was born unto him and named Freedom, doubtless in commemoration of his recent release from durance vile; and there on the 10th of 5th month, 1657, his daughter Increase was born. His fifth son, Jacob, was also born at Stonehouse on 11th of 3d month, 1660.

Persecution continued to rage throughout England, and Friends were no whit intimidated thereby. The imprisonment of several in Devonshire and in Cornwall induced many of their brethren from distant places to visit them, and as was usual with some, as they passed to declare to the people their own experience of the value of true religion. This alarmed the Justices, who made an order of Sessions to apprehend as vagrants all Quakers travelling without a pass. In consequence of this arbitrary order many were imprisoned. Others were fined for absence from public worship; some were inhumanly whipped or placed in the stocks, and otherwise basely treated. Towards the end of 1660 a general imprisonment began for refusing to take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy, which nothing prevented the Friends from taking but their principle of obedience to Christ's precept, "Swear not at all," which they believed expressly prohibited all manner of oaths. For this purpose many were taken from meeting and had the oaths tendered them by the Mayor and other Commissioners, and for refusing it were sent to prison. On the 20th of January (the 11th month, old style), Richard Lippincott and others were taken from a meeting at Plymouth by the Mayor and sent to the High Gaol at Exon (Exeter).

The prisons of the High Gaol and Bridewell at Exon were now thronged, about seventy persons having been committed in about two months, among whom were all the men of Plymouth who were known as Quakers. The women nevertheless, undismayed, constantly continued to hold their meetings for worship, which having been observed by the Mayor, he sent for them and asked them why they met contrary to the King's command. They answered that they did so, not in contempt of authority, but in discharge of their duty to God, in whose fear they met to wait upon and worship Him in spirit and in truth; and that if in so doing they had broken the law, they were ready to show their submission by patient suffering. The Mayor then proposed to them to become engaged for one another's good behaviour, to which they replied that they had not been guilty of ill behaviour, as the people of the town who knew their Conversations could witness. Their Christian courage and constancy made such an impression upon the Mayor, that he dismissed them, threatening, however, that if they were again brought before him he would send them to prison. (Besse's "Sufferings of the Quakers," vol. i. pp. 151, 152.)

Richard Lippincott was again in prison, and his wife was doubtless among the women who continued to attend meetings for worship regardless of the rigor of the persecuting arm. Some may incline to censure as stubborn and self-willed the conduct of these inflexible adherents to conscientious conviction. It was said of Friends in the time of George Fox, that they were "as stiff as trees," their refusal to pay tithes, to perform military service, to take oaths, etc., though the sure prospect of suffering lay before them, having given rise to this remark. "But," says one who has written much in their defence, though not one of them, "this noble practice of bearing testimony, by which a few individuals attempt to stem the torrent of immorality by opposing themselves to the stream, and which may be considered as a living martyrdom, does in a moral point of view a great deal of good to those who conscientiously adopt it. It teaches them to reason upon principle and to make their estimates by a moral standard. It is productive both of patience and of courage. It occasions them to be kind and attentive and merciful to those who are persecuted and oppressed. . . . It is a great pity that, as professing Christians, we should not more of us incorporate this noble principle individually into our religion. . . . What an immensity of good would be done if cases of persons choosing rather to suffer than to temporize were so numerous as to attract the general notice of men!" (Clarkson's "Portraiture of Quakerism.")

This remarkable firmness and persistence in opposition to every form of wrong has made the Quakers a power in the earth, and rendered them the pioneers of almost every moral and political reform of the last two centuries. The Friends have ever been foremost in works of philanthropy and Christian progress, and whether we regard them as defenders of the rights of conscience and the liberties of the people, as opposers of slavery, of oaths, of tithes, of the abomination of war, the cruel treatment of the aborigines, of criminals and the insane, or the high consideration they have ever awarded to woman, we find them everywhere in advance of their contemporaries. The principles of freedom promulgated during the Revolutionary War in America and embodied in the Constitution of the United States are directly traceable to the sound religious and civil views of the early founders of the Society of Friends, or to their revival of the principles and practices of primitive Christianity, and it can be safely asserted that mankind is more largely indebted to Quakerism for its present social happiness and moral elevation than to any other religious body in existence. Their firmness has therefore borne most excellent fruit.

The colony in Rhode Island in those days offering to Friends freedom for the exercise of their mode of worship, Richard Lippincott again removed to New England, where he sojourned for a time. Having been preserved from the wrath of the persecutor and the perils of the sea, he named his next son Preserved, who was born here on Christmas day, 1663. The names of the surviving children of Richard and Abigail form the words of a prayer, which needed only the addition of a son, Israel, to have been complete. Thus, Remember John, Restore Freedom, Increase Jacob, and Preserve (Israel). This was doubtless accidental, having never been premeditated by their parents, though inclined to ways in fashion among the Puritans.

A new charter having been granted by Charles II., incorporating the Rhode Island and Providence Plantations in 1663, and the New Netherlands having come into the possession of the English in 1664, and a patent granted to a company of Friends from Long Island in 1665, who first bought the lands of the Indian sachems, Richard Lippincott felt drawn to remove with others from Rhode Island and

and to make their estimates by a moral standard. It is productive both of patience and of courage. It occasions them to be kind and attentive and merciful to those who are persecuted and oppressed. . . . A new charter having been granted by Charles II., incorporating the Rhode Island and Providence Plantations in 1663, and the New Netherlands having come into the possession of the English in 1664, and a patent granted to a company of Friends from Long Island in 1665, who first bought the lands of the Indian sachems, Richard Lippincott felt drawn to remove with others from Rhode Island and become an associate patentee with the residents on and near Shrewsbury River, in East Jersey. He thus became a member of the first English colony in New Jersey, in which he was the largest shareholder.

He was an active officer of the colony, and in 1669 was deputy of the Patentees, and an overseer, and again, in 1670, an overseer of Shrewsbury Town. In the latter year the first meeting for worship was established by Friends, which was visited by George Fox in 1672. The residence of Richard Lippincott was on Passequeneiqua Creek, a branch of South Shrewsbury River, three-quarters of a mile northeast of the house of his son-in-law, Samuel Dennis, which stood three-quartes of a mile east of the town of Shrewsbury.

John Fenwick being ambitious to found a colony in America, and needing funds therefor, sold to various parties while in England extensive tracts in his projected domain. Richard Lippincott engaged to locate 1000 acres, lying on the Cohansey River, in the present county of Salem, New Jersey. Fenwick confirmed the grant of lands hypothecated to Lippincott in England in August, 1676, and conveyed the said 1000 acres for the payment of £20, consideration money, and two bushels of wheat annually, in rent. This land was intended for Richard Lippincott's five sons, and was surveyed in 1678, and divided among them in the following year. By agreement Freedom was permitted to have the first choice. John sold his share to Freedom in 1683, and Freedom parted with his 200 acres in 1686.

Having at length found a fixed residence, Richard Lippincott lived an active, useful life, surrounded by a worthy family, and comfortable in the possession of a sufficient estate and happy in the enjoyment of religious and political freedom. Here he passed the last eighteen years of his life, and here he died on the 25th of 9th month (November, O. S.), 1683.

WILL OF RICHARD LIPPINCOTT.

The last will of Richard Lippincott of Shrewsbury, in the Province of East New Jersey, being in his right perfect sense and memory, disposeth of his outward estate as followeth, viz: I do give and bequeath to my sone Jacob Lippincott all and singular my upland and meadow, being lying and adjoining to a place commonly called long point, to him and his heirs, executors, and administrators or assigns forever. Secondly, I do give and bequeath to my sone Freedome Lippincott, after the decease of myself and my wife, all and singular my new dwelling, housing, out housing, with yards, and my farm, thereunto adjoining, during his natural life and no longer; and after his decease then I give it to my grandsone Richard Lippincott, to him and his heirs or assigns for ever, and Thirdly, I give to my sone, Remembrance five shillings. Hi Elaine,
It is the Parish Church of Eccles and it is the Church of England. It is in the middle of Eccles and there are still Valentines that attend worship there. I am interested in Eccles since I chart to Richard from Eccles. I even sat in the pew that was bought by the Valentine Family in 1615 or around that time. Where do you live? I do believe that you are right about the name of the community clese to Manchester.
Cheers
Robert Valentine

Hi Elaine,
There are still Valentines in and around Manchester. You will find most in and around Eccles and will find Valentines buried in the the graveyard and under the floor of the parish church. I was not able to make it to, Stadford where I believe most of the records for the Valentines may be found. I am not sure if it is Stadford or Stradford but it is close to Manchester. I was there last Summer and plan to return next year. Hope this helps. By the way I did find live valentines also in Manchester.

Bud's Line

"As we study on the map the location of the Germans before the Revolution, two facts impress themselves. In the first place, the Germans were in the possession of most of the best land for farming purposes. They had cultivated the great limestone areas reaching from northeast to southwest, the most fertile lands in the colonies. The middle sections of Pennsylvania were in their possession, those which became the granary of the colonies in the coming Revolutionary War, and subsequently the foundation of the financial prosperity of the new nation. The Shenandoah and Mohawk valleys were the rivals of the farm-lands of Pennsylvania, while the German countries of North and South Carolina pushed them hard for agricultural honors. The Germans in these sections supplanted all other nationalities through their superior industry, skill, and material resources acquired through habits of economy."

"Even before the Revolution the value of the midland Pennsylvania counties as provision-houses for armies was recognized by the following incident. In 1758 an army was raised for the taking of Fort Duquesne, near which Braddock had met disaster three years before. The question arose whether the army starting from Pennsylvania should go straight through the woods, hewing a new road, or should march thirty-four miles southwestwardly to Fort Cumberland in Maryland, and thence follow the road made by Braddock. It was in accordance with the interests of Pennsylvania that the new road be made; while Virginia was unwilling to see a highway cut for her rival that would lead into the rich lands of the Ohio, claimed by Virginia. Washington, who was then at Fort Cumberland with a part of his regiment, earnestly advocated taking the old road, while the Quartermaster-General, Sir William SinClair, advised in favor of the Pennsylvania route. The generals in command, Forbes and Bouquet, decided for a particular reason to take the straight course. It was shorter and when once made would furnish readier and more abundant supplies of food and forage: but to make it would consume a vast amount of time and labor. As later events proved, it was not British success in battle, but mainly the advantage of position, the possibility of getting supplies and holding out longer, advantages beyond the reach of the French, that forced the latter to evacuate Fort Duquesne."[4]

Dr. Benjamin Rush, the noted Philadelphia physician, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence; surgeon in the Revolutionary Army, etc., says the Pennsylvania farms produced millions of dollars, which after 1780 made possible the foundation of the Bank of North America. The first bank in America, chartered 1781. Washington's "honest friend," Christoph Ludwig, baker-general of the army, who provided all the bread for the patriot army, drew his supplies of grain directly from the Pennsylvania German farms.[5] "The second striking fact which impresses itself in a study of the map is the occupancy by the German settlers of almost the entire frontier area from Maine to Georgia." "The credit for defending the American frontier has very commonly been accorded to the Scotch and Irish settlers. From the map, based upon a careful study of the location of the German settlers, it appears that the Scotch and Irish could not have had a larger share in the defense of the frontier than the Germans, when the whole extent of the frontier line is considered. There were certain reasons why so large a percentage of the German immigration settled on the frontier. Similar causes operating for the bulk of the Scotch, Irish and Huguenot immigrants. They were poor, and were obliged to go where land was cheap or where squatters could maintain their independence."

Dr. Benjamin Rush, like the historian Tacitus wrote a modern "Germania" of the Pennsylvania Germans. It was entitled "An account of the manners of the German inhabitants of Pennsylvania, written in 1789." The author treats his subject under sixteen heads. He discusses "a few particulars in which the German farmers differ from most of the other farmers of Pennsylvania."

1. (Housing horses and cattle). In settling a tract of land the Germans always provide large and suitable accommodations for their horses and cattle, before they lay out much money in building a house for themselves. The next generation builds a large and convenient stone house.

2. (Good land). "They always prefer good land, or that land on which there is a large quantity of meadow ground. By attention to the cultivation of grass, they often grow rich on farms, on which their predecessors have nearly starved. They prefer purchasing farms with some improvements, to settling on a new tract of land." (This latter statement did not hold true for the frontier regions, only the older regions in Eastern Pennsylvania).

3. (Methods of clearing land). "In clearing new land they do not girdle or belt the trees simply, and leave them to perish in the ground, as is the custom of their English or Irish neighbors; but they generally cut them down and burn them." Underwood and brush they would pull out by the roots.

4. (Good feeding). They feed their horses and cows well. "A German horse is known in every part of the state." Indeed, he seems to feel with his lord the pleasure and pride of his extraordinary size and fat.

5. Fences). "The fences of a German farm are generally high and well built so that his fields seldom suffer from the inroads of his own or his neighbors horses and cattle."

6. (Use of wood). "The German farmers are great economists of wood." They do not waste it in large fireplaces but burn it in stoves, using about one fourth to one fifth as much.

7. (Comfort of cattle). "They keep their horses and cattle as warm as possible in winter, by which they save feed."

8. (Economy). "The Germans live frugally in their homes with respect to diet, furniture and dress."

9. (Gardens). Kitchen gardening the Germans introduced altogether. Their gardens contained useful vegetables at every season of the year. "Pennsylvania is indebted to the Germans for the principal part of her knowledge in horticulture."

10. (Few hired men). The Germans seldom hire men to work upon their farms. The wives and daughters of the German farmers frequently forsake for a while their dairy and spinning wheel and join their husbands and brothers in the labor of the fields.[6]

11. (Wagons). "A large and strong wagon covered with cloth is an essential part of the furniture of a German farm. These Conestoga wagons became the "prairie schooner" of a later date.

12. (Children). "The favorable influence of agriculture, as conducted by the Germans, in extending the most happiness, is manifested by the joy expressed at the birth of a child. No dread of poverty or distrust of Providence from an increasing family, depress the spirits of this industrious and frugal people."

13. (Love of labor). "Germans produced in their children not only the habits of labor but a love for it. When a young man asks the consent of his father to marry the girl of his choice, he does not inquire so much whether she be rich or poor, or whether she possess any personal or mental accomplishments, but whether she be industrious and acquainted with the duties of a good housewife."

[6] Cf. Whittier's poem "Maud Muller."

14. (Patrimony). "The Germans set a great value upon patrimonial property." The idea prevails that a house and home should be possessed by a succession of generations.

15. (Superstition). "The German farmers are very much influenced in planting and pruning trees, also in sowing and reaping, by the age and appearance of the moon." They used the divining rod to find water. Thus: Taking a last years growth of a forked peach branch the two branches are grasped firmly with thumbs outward then the whole forked branch is twisted backward toward the body and upward, bringing the thumbs toward each other, then revolving them downward, backward and upward. This gives the peachfork a decided twist with the heavy base branch standing upward and slightly forward. Now the practitioner walks over the ground and when the vein of water is reached the peach base branch will twist downward toward the water. Magic arts of healing were also practiced. One book of magic is entitled "Albertus Magnus tried and approved sympathetic and natural Egyptian secrets, for man and beast." But it must not be understood that the German settler was more superstitious than other frontier men of the day. The entire country was oppressed with witchcraft and magic. The American Indian had his medicine man, who was nothing else than a witch and magician. The colonists elsewhere were burning witches about this time. Even today, people consult the horoscope and avoid Friday and the thirteenth as unlucky.

16. (Barns). "A German farm may be distinguished from the farms of the other citizens of the state by the superior size of their barns, the plain but compact form of their houses, the height of their enclosures, the extent of their orchard, the fertility of their fields, the luxuriance of their meadows, all of which have a general appearance of plenty and neatness in everything that belongs to them."[7]

CHAPTER III

Explorations and Early Settlements in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania

While the English, Dutch and Swedes were settling the Atlantic Seaboard, the French were busy exploring the great interior of America. Moving from Canada as a base, their expeditions under Joliet, Marquette, LaSalle and Hennepin, explored and fortified the great Mississippi Valley from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, and the Ohio Valley from its tributaries to its entrance into the Mississippi. Hence, while England claimed the Atlantic seaboard and the hinterland, France also claimed the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys by virtue of explorations.

In 1689 war broke out in Europe between France and England. One of the objects was the possession of India and America. This war (1689-1763), called The Hundred Years War, was taken up by their respective Colonies in America. The fourth section of this conflict (1754-1763) was known as the French and Indian War, and had for its purpose the control of the interior of the North American continent.

The French had built a line of Forts from Quebec to the Lakes and from thence to the Gulf of Mexico. To protect the Ohio Valley they erected Forts at Presque Isle on Lake Erie, Fort Le Boeuf, Fort Venango, a Fort on French Creek, and contemplated building a fort at the junction of the Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers.

Notes

Joseph Green: Was born in Mass. in 1790. Have not identified his parents yet.

In 1814 he married Rebecca A.Cottle , that same year they traveled to Ohio,probably along the National Rd. (40 now) as they settled in Cincinnati.

Working there for several years at the carpenter trade. He then purchased land in the western part of Hamilton Co.Oh. He then moved his family here where they stayed until 1824, then moved to Warren Co.,Oh. remaining until 1832. At this time they came north into Shelby Co.,Dinsmore twp.(not sure what twp. it was at that time but is now dinsmore).

The first election in the twp. was held in his home,spring of 1833.

At the time Mr.Green first came to Shelby Co. his family consisted of his wife and six children. This portion of the county was entirely unimproved and their cows had to run in the woods for pasture.It was not long before they discovered that milk sickness was in the area. Their cattle and hogs died from the effects of it. Several persons died of the same,among them were Joseph's wife Rebecca and two of their daughters.Discourged aand filled with dispair Joseph took his ,now smaller,family and returned to Hamilton Co, where they remained until his death in 1834.

Much of the above is listed in : History of Shelby Co.,Ohio in 1862 and also in Hamilton Co. History.

Joseph was buried at the old Deerfield Cemetary (was in Hamilton Co.) now at South Lebanon(Warren Co.) in the new cemetary. They just moved the stones from the old cemetary and stacked them at the bottom of the hill in the newer cem. We have been there and were appalled at what they had done. It is impossible to read the stones as they are all bunched together.

some information on the Green clan came from:
Bernadine Green (Mrs Frank)Edgington,104 State Route 235,St.Paris,Ohio 43072.
To this date I have not been able to confirm the parentage of Joseph but will continue to gather info. 30 June,1998 /

Joseph Green

Notes

Joseph Green: Was born in Mass. in 1790. Have not identified his parents yet.

In 1814 he married Rebecca A.Cottle , that same year they traveled to Ohio,probably along the National Rd. (40 now) as they settled in Cincinnati.

Working there for several years at the carpenter trade. He then purchased land in the western part of Hamilton Co.Oh. He then moved his family here where they stayed until 1824, then moved to Warren Co.,Oh. remaining until 1832. At this time they came north into Shelby Co.,Dinsmore twp.(not sure what twp. it was at that time but is now dinsmore).

The first election in the twp. was held in his home,spring of 1833.

At the time Mr.Green first came to Shelby Co. his family consisted of his wife and six children. This portion of the county was entirely unimproved and their cows had to run in the woods for pasture.It was not long before they discovered that milk sickness was in the area. Their cattle and hogs died from the effects of it. Several persons died of the same,among them were Joseph's wife Rebecca and two of their daughters.Discourged aand filled with dispair Joseph took his ,now smaller,family and returned to Hamilton Co, where they remained until his death in 1834.

Much of the above is listed in : History of Shelby Co.,Ohio in 1862 and also in Hamilton Co. History.

Joseph was buried at the old Deerfield Cemetary (was in Hamilton Co.) now at South Lebanon(Warren Co.) in the new cemetary. They just moved the stones from the old cemetary and stacked them at the bottem of the hill in the newer cem. We have been there and were appalled at what they had done. It is impossible to read the stones as they are all bunched together.

some information on the Green clan came from:

Bernadine Green (Mrs Frank)Edgington,104 State Route 235,St.Paris,Ohio 43072.

To this date I have not been able to confirm the parentage of Joseph but will continue to gather info. 30 June,1998 /

The Women Around Us

By Carol McNally

"It's always more important to prove what you can do in your chosen vocation rather than try to rest on past successes," states Nell Green, former professional dancer and now full-time teacher.

Miss Green teaches ballroom, ballet and tap and points out that all three have real value although the student doesn't ever consider a professional career.

Ballet, of course, provides the fundamentals, while tap gives the necessary rhythm and co-ordination. Ballroom gives, if nothing else, more self-assurance to the individual.

The teacher must not only be able to teach dancing, but must have had experience as well. Miss Green teaches and has a great deal of professional background.

'Make-believe' Dancing

She grew up on a farm in Ohio and went away to school at an early age. Originally she wanted to be a concert pianist and, accordingly, she studied music at Ohio Northern University. From there she went on to be a graduate teacher of music from Proctor School of Music, Dayton.

* * *

Nell Green

However, all the time she was playing the piano, she was also "make-believe" dancing: originating her own steps to music she heard and making waltzes and tangos come to life with her own feet and body.

Miss Green studied dancing from a number of renowned teachers in New York City and Chicago. Among them were Donald Sawyer and Steffie Nossen, New York, and Gladys Hight and Berniece Holmes, Chicago. She is a graduate, too, of the John Robert Powers' School.

Her greatest love as a professional was ballet and exhibition dancing. However, she contracted a paralysis and her legs do not properly support her now. This is the main reason she has given up teaching acrobatic dancing.

Miss Green stresses the importance of never being humiliating to her students. She points to the time when she was told she danced like a cow and says that will never happen in any of her classes.

Also, she emphasizes the importance of basics and consistent practice in dancing. She does her own choreography for the revues of her classes and has even compiled her own ballet book with records to enable students to remember steps and French terms.

Her husband, George Macdonald, is her office manager and also teaches ballroom dancing. Most of her spare time is spent writing dances, arranging music and outlining programs. In between seasons she goes to Mexico City and Florida where she has a busman's holiday — you guessed it, visiting dancing schools.

Miss Green points out that there is real rejuvenation in seeing how other schools operate and learning new teaching methods.

As her husband likes sports, the Macdonalds take in quite a few sporting events, football games in particular. Of course, her main interest is her three children by her first marriage. One of her daughters was her teaching partner for some time.

Miss Green takes children as young as 3½, but limits her class size to 12. As a teacher with primary interest in ballet, she states "the good that is derived from ballet includes more grace, better posture, development of personality and more self-assurance."

do try to keep busy though.
My cousin Bill Fox sent these drawings to me last month. He said he was cleaning house & found them. Lester had given them to him years ago. Probably 1917 or 1918. Lester was quite an artist & he drew sketches for the local paper. Bill Fox is my Dads sisters boy. He lived with us for a short time after his mother died. I am glad Lester signed one of them.

Notes

Joseph Green: Was born in Mass. in 1790. Have not identified his parents yet.

In 1814 he married Rebecca A.Cottle , that same year they traveled to Ohio,probably along the National Rd. (40 now) as they settled in Cincinnati.

Working there for several years at the carpenter trade. He then purchased land in the western part of Hamilton Co.Oh. He then moved his family here where they stayed until 1824, then moved to Warren Co.,Oh. remaining until 1832. At this time they came north into Shelby Co.,Dinsmore twp.(not sure what twp. it was at that time but is now dinsmore).

The first election in the twp. was held in his home,spring of 1833.

At the time Mr.Green first came to Shelby Co. his family consisted of his wife and six children. This portion of the county was entirely unimproved and their cows had to run in the woods for pasture.It was not long before they discovered that milk sickness was in the area. Their cattle and hogs died from the effects of it. Several persons died of the same,among them were Joseph's wife Rebecca and two of their daughters.Discourged aand filled with dispair Joseph took his ,now smaller,family and returned to Hamilton Co, where they remained until his death in 1834.

Much of the above is listed in : History of Shelby Co.,Ohio in 1862 and also in Hamilton Co. History.

Joseph was buried at the old Deerfield Cemetary (was in Hamilton Co.) now at South Lebanon(Warren Co.) in the new cemetary. They just moved the stones from the old cemetary and stacked them at the bottem of the hill in the newer cem. We have been there and were appalled at what they had done. It is impossible to read the stones as they are all bunched together.

some information on the Green clan came from:

Bernadine Green (Mrs Frank)Edgington,104 State Route 235,St.Paris,Ohio 43072.

To this date I have not been able to confirm the parentage of Joseph but will continue to gather info. 30 June,1998 /

HATHAWAY

In the passing of Mrs. Margaret Isabelle Hathawny, one of our oldest and most beloved citizens has gone to her reward.

On Thursday evening Jan 24 as the day was closing, her spirit winged its flight to her Heavenly Father.

For eighty years she was permitted to live among us. She being the daughter of Christian parents, Rev. David and Catherine Rhinehart, it was not difficult for her to adapt herself to the livelihood of being a minister's wife that of Rev. D. H. Hathaway, who preceded her, to the spirit word Feb 4 1912.

She was united in marriage with Rev. Hathaway Dec 28 1870.

This union was blessed with six children, one dying in infancy.

The family so sorely bereft are the remaining children, Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Alonzo Shaw, Misses Adda and Laura Hathaway of Sidney Mr. Ernest Hathaway of Tippecanoe City Ohio also a sister Mrs. M. K. Coon of Hardin. Ten grand children and five great grand children.

Mrs. Hathaway was a faithful and life time member of the M. E. Church. Always being of great service in all of its activities until her health failed.

She was also a member of the W. C. T. U. organization and of the Neal Relief Corps.

Mrs. Hathaway had many friends who esteemed her highly for her work's sake, because hers was a life marked by unselfish service for others.

She thought not of herself and of her own pleasure but of those whom she loved and whom she might help.

Our Saviour once said, If any would be chief among you let him be as a servant. If any would be great let him be him be servant of all.

Judged by this standard, our sister was one of the great ones of earth, for she gave her life in service for others.

She loved her home and family, her friends, and her Lord.

Such a life can not die. It will live on in the good influence it has exerted, in the good deeds it has wrought in the memory of those she loved and will live on too, we believe consciously in our Father's house, where there are many dwelling places.

She rests from her labors but her orks follow her.

"I can not say and I will not say.
hat she is dead she is just away Vith a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
he has wandered into an unknown
land,
d left us dreaming how very fair leeds must be since she lingers ere you — O you who the wildest urn,
he old time step and the glad turn,
k of her as faring on, as dear he love of there as the love of ere,
ik of her still as the same I say is not dead, she is just away."

REV. D. H. HATHAWAY WELL KNOWN MINISTER KILLED BY THE CARS

4/99 SIDNEY DAILY NEWS (Oh)
JAN-1-1912 — JUNE 29, 1912 CB-29

HE WAS ON HIS WAY TO THE PLUM CREEK CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING, WHERE HE WAS TO PREACH THE EVENING SERMON.

Was Walking on the Track When the Western Ohio Work Car Struck Him. Badly Crushed and Bruised About the Head and Body.

Rev. David H. Hathaway, retired Methodist minister and well known resident, was killed by being struck by a south bound car on the Western Ohio railroad, a short distance south of the Plum Creek church, three miles north of Sidney, Sunday evening shortly after six o'clock. The car which struck him was the work car No. 96 which was on its way to Sidney, clearing the tracks of the snow with a snow plow. The car was stopped immediately after the accident, the injured man placed aboard Creek for Rev. Walker, of Hardin, when he met his death.

The funeral services will be held at the house Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

ing shortly after six o'clock. The car which struck him was the work car No. 96 which was on its way to Sidney, clearing the tracks of the snow with a snow plow. The car was stopped immediately after the accident, the injured man placed aboard and brought on to Sidney, he passing away shortly after the depot in this city was reached. He never regained consciousness after the accident.

Rev. Hathaway and his wife have been living a short distance north of the city for about a year in the new house just south of the old Fletcher homestead. They recently purchased a small piece of property there and moved into the new house about a year ago. Rev. Hathaway was a supply preacher and had started out Sunday evening from his home to walk to the Plum Creek church some distance north of his home, where he was to preach Sunday evening. He had preached at the Plattsville church during the afternoon, arriving home about 5 o'clock. He started to walk north up the Western Ohio tracks leaving home about six o'clock He took the railroad on account of the snow being drifted across the pike, and which was almost impassible. When about three hundred feet south of the cross roads upon which the church is located, the work car coming south came along. Motorman Weaver, who had charge of the work car, says that he whistled for the crossing and also when he noticed the man walking toward the car in the middle of the track.

The motorman said that he supposed that the man would step off the track out of the way but he failed to make the effort soon enough and he was struck by the car as a result.

It is supposed that Hathaway was walking up the track with his head down thinking of his sermon and having his cap [illegible] down over his ears and low on his forehead, did not see the car coming, although the head light shone out brightly.

The car was immediately stopped after the accident, Hathaway placed upon it and brought to Sidney the present with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brautigam on Orbison Hill.

Coloring a Meerschaum.

"The secret of coloring a meerschaum pipe," said a man who makes them, "is in not allowing the bowl to get too hot. All meerschaum pipes are boiled in wax, which penetrates the clay—for that's all meerschaum is—and which carries the tobacco oil to all parts of the surface, preventing its exuding. The nature of heat is to drive any liquid away, and if the pipe is smoked too fast the heat generated will drive the wax to the extremes. That is why most meerschaums show color first in those places. Just as soon as the wax is all driven out there is an end to the hope of coloring the pipe unless it is reboiled.

"To prevent this burning smoke slowly, with long, steady puffs. If the bowl gets hot lay the pipe aside at once. Also, let the pipe be thoroughly cold before refilling it after smoking. Nothing will ruin your pipe sooner than keeping it steadily in use."—New York Times.

The car was immediately stopped after the accident, Hathaway placed upon it and brought to Sidney and a physician called. He died a few minutes after reaching the depot without regaining consciousness.

He was not identified until some time afterwards, no one at the depot recognizing him.

An examination of his injuries developed the fact that he had been badly cut in the forehead on the right side, his right ear was cut off and several of his ribs on the right side were broken and badly crushed and that he had been injured internally.

The remains were taken to Salm and Taylor's undertaking parlors on Main avenue and prepared for burial and taken to his home north of the city later in the evening.

Rev. Hathaway was born at Pasco June 6, 1845, and had spent most of his life in Shelby county. December 28, 1870, he was united in marriage with Mrs. Isabelle Rhinehart, a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Rhinehart and six children were born to them, five of whom survive him—Ernest L. Hathaway, Mrs. R. G. Green, Mrs. Benjamin Needles, Misses Laura and Addie Hathaway. He studied for the ministry and in 1886 he was ordained as a minister of the gospel in the Central Ohio M. E. conference, most of his work being in the Lima and Bellefontaine districts, and was on his way to fill the pulpit at Plum selection of medicine for children. Only the very gentlest bowel medicine should ever be given. Ordinary pills, cathartics, and purgatives are too apt to do more harm than good. They sometimes cause griping, nausea, and distressing after-effects, and may actually injure the health, thus establishing a life-lasting annoyance.

We personally recommend and guarantee Rexall Orderlies as a safe and dependable remedy for constipation and associate bowel disorders. We have such faith in the virtues of this remedy that we sell it on our guarantee or money back in every instance where it fails to give entire satisfaction, and we urge all in need of such medicine to try it at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies not only relieve constipation, but help to remove the cause of this ailment. They also frequently overcome the necessity of constantly taking laxatives to keep the bowels in normal condition.

There is really, in our opinion, no similar medicine so good as Rexall Orderlies for the purpose to which it is directed, especially for children, aged and delicate persons. They are prepared in tablet form and in two sizes of packages; 12 tablets, 10c., 36 tablets, 25c., and 80 tablets, 50c. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. C. J. Briggs, druggist.

MRS. HATHAWAY DIED LAST NIGHT

Aged Lady Dies After Only One Week's Illness

A beloved woman passed away Thursday evening, when Mrs. Belle Hathaway died at her home on east South street, following a week's illness. Mrs. Hathaway was in her eightieth year of life, and many of those years were spent as a resident of Sidney.

Mrs. Hathaway was the widow of the Rev. D. H. Hathaway, and before her marriage was Miss Belle Rinehart, daughter of David and Catherine Rinehart. She was born at Lancaster, Ohio, on the 6th, of June 1849. Her marriage with Rev. D. H. Hathaway took place on December 28, 1870. They were the parents of five children, all of whom survive; E. L. Hathaway, of Tippecanoe City, Mrs. A. E. Shaw, Mrs. R. G. Green, Miss Addie and Laura Hathaway, of Sidney. Rev. Hathaway, who had served in various Methodist pastorates in this section of Ohio, passed away on February 6, 1912.

Besides her children, one sister, Mrs. M. K. Coon of near Hardin, ten grand children, and four great grand children, survive.

The funeral services will be held at two o'clock from the home, and will be private. Interment will be made in Graceland cemetery.

Friends may call at the home to view the remains at any time.

HATHAWAY.

In early times this name was written as it is usually pronounced, Hadaway. Four of the name came over. Arthur, who settled in Marshfield, and afterward removed to Dartmouth; John and Joseph of Taunton, and John of Barnstable.

John Hadaway of Barnstable, was born in the year 1617, as appears by the Custom House record, and by his deposition dated March 1, 1658-9. He came over in 1635, in the ship Blessing from London. July 1, 1656, he married Hannah, daughter of Mary Hallett, presumed to be the widow of the school-master, Mr. Andrew Hallett, the elder. She died early, and he married May 1, 1672, Elizabeth, daughter of Edward Coleman of Yarmouth. She was born in Boston 28th Feb. 1651-2, and was thirty-five years younger than her husband.

About this time he removed to Yarmouth, not to Taunton as stated by Mr. Savage, and built a house on a clearing in the woods, about a quarter of a mile west of the spot where the Town House in Yarmouth now stands, and known as Thompson's fields, because a man of that name subsequently owned the lot. The late Mr. Paul Rider afterwards owned the old Hadaway house and estate. He was taxed in Yarmouth in 1675 and 1676, showing that he removed as above stated. His rate was eight pence in 1675, evidence that he was at that time a man of small estate.

His estate in Barnstable was equal to an average of the estates of the first settlers, yet it soon passed into the hands of others. March 31, 1659, by a deed of gift, his mother-in-law conveyed to him the land now owned by Major Phinney on the north of the railroad, and the land where the Custom House now stands, with the dwelling-house thereon. Dec. 14, 1661, he bought the house and lands of his brother-in-law, Josiah Hallett, situate on the south of the railroad, for £10 sterling. In this purchase was included three acres of meadow at Blushes point, bounded north by the beach, east by the meadow of Abraham Blush, and south and west by "Old Mill Creek." As rights of commonage pertained to these lands and dwelling-houses, Haddaway at that time was not a poor man.

John Hathaway of Taunton, was a very respectable man, owned a large landed estate, and was often employed in the business of the Colony. Our John was a different man. During a portion of his life he was intemperate in his habits, improvident, and wasted his own and his wife's estate. He belonged to the class of persons that I have described under the name of Caseley, and to which I shall have occasion hereafter to refer.

He died in Yarmouth in the year 1697, aged 80 years. In his will dated Aug. 3, 1689, proved Feb. 20, 1696-7, he names his wife Elizabeth, and his sons Thomas, John, Gideon, and Edward. He refers to daughters by a former wife, but does not name them, and to two daughters by his wife Elizabeth. His widow is named in the settlement of her brother Edward's estate in 1714. At the division of the common lands in 1710, Thomas is the only one of the name mentioned in Yarmouth, and there were none at that time of the name in Barnstable.

The record of the births of the children of John Hadaway is imperfect. On the Barnstable records four are named, namely:

I. John, born Oct. 1675, died same year.
II. John, Aug. 16, 1658.
III. Hannah, May 1662.
IV. Edward, 10th Feb. 1663-4.

Named in his will.

V. Thomas.
VI. Gideon.

He left Sarah, and probably two other daughters.

As this family is nearly extinct, I have not devoted much time to tracing its genealogy. The ancestor was an eccentric man, and many individuals among his descendants had their peculiarities. The children for several generations were brought up in secluded spots, at a distance from neighbors, and this fact probably had an influence on their characters.

John and Edward Hadaway, sons of John, died or removed from Yarmouth before 1710. Gideon married Jan. 21, 1697, Patience Beaumond of Dorchester, and perhaps removed to that town. Of Hannah I find no account. A Sarah Hadaway, probably a daughter of the first John, married Oct. 11, 1710, John Page, of whose history I know nothing.

Thomas remained in Yarmouth till about the year 1715, when he removed to Barnstable. He married Dec. 15, 1698, Sarah Baker of Yarmouth. I find no record of his children by this marriage. James, afterwards of Barnstable, and Hannah who married Feb. 15, 1728, John Lothrop, were probably his children. For his second wife he married May 19, 1714, Sarah Marchant of Yarmouth, and removed to Barnstable, where he had:

I. Lot, born May 6, 1717.

II. Sarah, June 24, 1718.
III. Temperance, May 23, 1720.
IV. Patience, Feb. 27, 1724-5.
V. Susannah, Sept. 3, 1726.
VI. Thomas, Dec. 3, 1730.

James Hadaway, probably son of Thomas by his first wife, married Oct. 9, 1730, Bethia, daughter of Barnard Lumbard, and had:

I. Lois, born 17th April 1732.
II. James, 13th Nov. 1733.

He died in 1733, leaving Widow Bethia and one small child. At the time of his death he was in the whaling business.

James, the second of the name, had a farm* at Rowley's pond, afterwards called Lewis', and of late years Hadaway's pond. His house, built perhaps by one of the Lewis family, stood on the south side of the pond. He was a very odd man, a firm believer in withcraft, and other strange fantasies. He lived to the ripe age of 95, a healthy old man, and to the last capable of great physical endurance. He married Dec. 9, 1756, Mary Lumbard, and had Benjamin, Lewis, John, and Hannah, whom I remember—perhaps others. For his second wife he married Mary, or Molly, as she was usually called, widow of Eli Phinney, one of the most efficient men in Barnstable during the Revolutionary period. She was a daughter of Jabez Phinney, and was born 3d Dec. 1735, and was perhaps one of the smallest specimens of humanity. She was the mother of nine children by her first husband, six of whom were living at the time she married Hadaway. She died Jan. 12, 1821, aged 85 years.

Of James' children John did not marry, and his father called him his boy more than 60 years. Benjamin has descendants. His house was destroyed by fire Feb. 1799.† His two sons were sleeping in a chamber at the time, and could not be approached by the stairway which was in flames. The eldest perished in his bed, the second was rescued by the father only to survive and suffer a few hours. Both are buried in one grave in the west burying-ground near the East Church. In attempting to rescue his children the father was badly burned, and for some time it was feared that he would lose his eyesight.

Thomas Hadaway youngest son of Thomas, married Dec. 18, 1757, Huldah Smith, daughter of Matthias of West Barnstacommonly pertained to these lands and dwelling-houses, Hathaway at that time was not a poor man.

*George Lewis' great lot was at Rowley's pond. Jan. 12, 1662-3, George Lewis, Sen., and his son George, Jr., conveyed the same to Edward and John, sons of George, Sen., namely: 27 1-2 acres on the northerly side to Edward, and 27 1-2 on the southerly to John. The latter was killed in the Rehobeth battle March 26, 1676, and his lands passed out of the family and for many years have been known as the Hadaway farm.

†The house which he built on the same spot with funds contributed to him, was also destroyed by fire the present year.

John Hathaway of Taunton, was a very respectable man, owned a large landed estate, and was often employed in the business of the Colony. Our John was a different man. ble. He had several children, among whom were Frederick, Benjamin and Hannah. Benjamin was called carpenter Ben. to distinguish him from the son of James. He was a deputy sheriff, a captain of a militia company, and jail keeper for a time. He was a very strong man, and among other feats he took up a barrel of rum and drank from the bung. He bought of Mr. Eleazer Scudder the ancient Gorham mansion house at Hyannis Port, where he resided and kept a public house. He married his cousin Hannah, daughter of James Hadaway, and had a large family of daughters. He was as eccentric as any of the name, and his history is an illustration of the saying, "Truth is stronger than fiction."

His sister Hannah sued him for money that she said she had deposited with him, taking no security therefor. He denied having received it. A few days before the case was to be tried, he remarked to his wife that he would go on board a vessel in the harbor, and purchase a barrel of flour. He did not return. Search was made for him. His hat was found in the surf on the shore, his boat was adrift, and the oar which he used in sculling was also found near by. These circumstances seemed to prove beyond controversy, that in attempting to board the vessel in the harbor he was accidentally drowned. Guns were fired, sweeps were dragged, oil was poured on the waters, and every effort was made to recover his body without success. No one had seen him go away, and his family and neighbors believed he was dead, and an administrator was appointed on his estate.

Soon after he left, there was a report that he had been seen at his brother Frederick's in Vermont, but nothing reliable could be obtained, though it was reported that letters had been received from him. Twenty-one years after he left he as unexpectedly returned to his house. No one knew where he came from, or how he came, and it was some time before the members of his family could realize that he was among the living. Capt. Hadaway in his dealings with strangers was considered an honorable man; but with members of his family or his relatives, he was the most eccentric of men.

Frederick married a Marchant, and removed to Vermont. He was as eccentric as any of the family.

Hannah married Capt. Thomas Appleton. She resided in Boston, Gloucester, and Barnstable. She was a woman of good understanding, well informed, and was distinguished for her colloquial powers and her ready wit. For fifteen years after her marriage she lived in good style, and associated with the intelligent, the gay and the fashionable. Notwithstanding, she was a Hadaway all her days—odd, eccentric, a firm believer in witches and witchcraft. Surprising stories she would tell of witches she had seen and known, of their strange transformations, and of the strange influence that they exerted over others. Those stories she dressed up in all the charms of eloquence, and would half persuade her hearers that they were true. She was the great-grand-daughter of the first John, inherited his peculiarities, and education, extensive reading, and association with the intelligent, failed to root out the seeds of fanaticism which in early life had been so deeply implanted in her mind, that they had become a part of her very being.

THOMAS HATCH.

Many of the name Hatch came over early. Elder William of Scituate, who came from Sandwich in England in 1635, with wife Jane and five children, was a noted man in the early history of the Colony. Two of the name of Thomas came over, and settled in Massachusetts, and afterwards removed to the Plymouth Colony. One of them was made a freeman of Massachusetts May 14, 1634, the same day that three others were, who were afterwards among the first settlers of Yarmouth. Thomas whom Mr. Deane calls an elder brother of William, settled in Scituate, and died there about the year 1646, leaving a family. Mr. Savage calls this man the freeman; but circumstances incline me to the opinion that it was the other Thomas who was made free May 14, 1634.

Thomas Hatch, the ancestor of the family in this country, was one of the nine who proposed, Jan. 7, 1638, O. S., "to take up their freedome at Yarmouth." On the 5th of March following his name is entered on the record with those who proposed to become freemen at the next court, but there is no mark against it indicating that he then took the required oath. In 1641 he had removed to Barnstable, and at the court held the first of June that year, he with others of that town, was again "propounded to be admitted a freeman at the next court." His name does not appear on any list of freemen of the town of Barnstable. He had taken the "oath of fidelity" before his removal from Yarmouth,

REVISED UNITED STATES STANDARD CERTIFICATE OF DEATH

[Approved by U. S. Census and American Public Health Association.]

Statement of occupation.—Precise statement of occupation is very important, so that the relative healthfulness of various pursuits can be known. The question applies to each and every person, irrespective of age. For many occupations a single word or term on the first line will be sufficient, e. g., Farmer or Planter, Physician, Compositor, Architect, Locomotive engineer, coma, etc., of .... (name origin; "Cancer" is less definite; avoid use of "Tumor" for malignant neoplasms); Measles; Whooping cough; Chronic valvular heart disease; Chronic interstitial nephritis, etc. The contributory (secondary or intercurrent) affection need not be stated unless important. Example: Measles (disease causing death), 29 ds.; Bronchopneumonia (secondary), 10 ds. Never report mere symptoms or terminal conditions, such as "Asthenia," "Anaemia" (merely symptomatic), "Atrophy," "Collapse," "Coma," "Convulsions," "Debility" (Congenital," "Senile," etc.), "Dropsy," "Exhaustion," "Heart failure," "Haemorrhage," "Inanition," "Marasmus," "Old age," "Shock," File No.

RES. OF NOAH RHINEHART, ORANGE TW'P. SHELBY CO. O.

Benjamin Huddle,

father of Mrs. Noah Rhinehart, was born in Virginia in 1804. In 1816 he came with his father, Daniel Huddle, to Fairfield County, where he married Anna Sites in 1823. Mrs. Rhinehart was the first child and was born in 1824. She was the first of eighteen children by the same parents. They located in Seneca County in 1828. When Mr. Huddle first located in Seneca he owned eighty acres that he had entered. On this wild land he took his wife and four small children. Afterward there were born to them fourteen others. Of these eighteen children, fourteen lived to become men and women. To each of these children he left at his death eighteen hundred dollars, all gotten by industry and economy.

James K. Patterson

was born in Seneca County, O., in 1845, and married Lydia Rhinehart, a daughter of Noah Rhinehart, in 1876. They have had born to them two children, viz., Edwin F. and Melvina A.

Noah Rhinehart

was born in Fairfield County in 1821, and was taken by his parents to Seneca County the same year, where they located in the woods without even a cabin. They at first sheltered themselves beside a log, and covered themselves with bark to protect themselves from the weather. The parents of Mr. Rhinehart—Jacob Rhinehart and Susanna Leslie—were married in Fairfield County, O., in 1820. After their removal to Seneca County they had just made a start in the woods, and had only been living there a few months when Mr. Rhinehart went to assist a neighbor to raise a mill. He was instantly killed by the falling of a timber. Mrs. Rhinehart then returned with her son Noah to Fairfield County, where he was put out among strangers, and never learned to know but little about his parents, not having seen his mother but a few times in his life. He was raised on a farm in Fairfield County until 1843, when he went to Seneca County and worked by the month for about one year, then married Rebecca Huddle in 1845, and moved on to a piece of wild land, where he built a cabin and commenced life in the woods without help. He cleared this farm himself and lived there until 1864, when he bought his present place in Shelby County, where he now resides. They have raised three children, viz., Lydia, Amanda, and Jacob.

Jacob, the son of the above, was born in Seneca County in 1852, and came with his parents to Shelby County in 1864. In 1876 he married Frances A. Butler. By this union they have two children, viz., Alvin D. and David F. Mr. R. has received a liberal education, having received the advantage of the common schools and one year at Heidelberg College.

Phil:

Hope this finds you well and "happy hunting" as well. I was so glad to find your letter when we returned from Tx.,sorry it has taken awhile for me to respond . First my husband was in the hospital then I was in. Between those things we celebrated our 50th wedding anniversary.

I am enclosing several sheets, which I have noted corrections with x's.Hope you don't mind. I have more in my files I think. I would like to have a copy of the Shelbyana that has your listings in it,if possible. I should join again but my husbands family goes back to some of the earlist families in Shelby co. and they never had anything in the newsletters.

I would enjoy having copies of your info. on the Rineharts and any thing else you would like to share. We are coming to Sidney again this spring to do more research hope we can touch base.

Do you mind if I ask how you came upon the data from Belle's Bible?? Sure would like to copy it or parts there of.

I will round up some of the pictures I have,you might be interested.

Sincerely,
Lucy

Dear Lucille:

Thank you for your updated 5-generation chart. I will pass copies of it along to Donn Lutz, Chart Chairman, and Steve Urwin, Pioneer Family Chairman. If anyone can help, Steve can.

Your husbands's ancestor, Rev. David Rinehart, is not connected with my husband's family, as far as I can tell. However, it is such a huge family, it is entirely possible that there might be a connection.

His family came from York County, PA, by way of Columbiana County, OH. His name is Donald LeRoy Rinehart, b. 30 DE 1932; his father, James Harold Rinehart, b. 25 MY 1906; his grandfather, Silas C Rinehart, b. 25 SE 1867, d. 25 AU 1954; his gr-grdf., Michael B Rinehart, b 11 AP 1824, d. 6 MY 1880 (b. York Co., PA); his gr-gr-grdf. Jacob Reinhard (Changed to Rinehart in 1836) b. FE 1761, d. 13 MR 1846 (born PA, d. Woodbury, Morrow Co., OH). From Jacob on back, the information is uncertain. There are varying accounts of who the immigrant ancestor might be. Some of the family came to Ohio through Jefferson County, which is next to Columbiana County on the South side. They lived there for a time and then settled, we don't know where for certain. Two settled in Morrow Co., some in Richland Co., Knox Co., Delaware Co. and Crawford County. Oh yes, Hardin Co. also. We know the names but not what happened to all of them. If any of this sounds like your husbands family, I'll try to help you with whatever information I have. I'm not actively working on his family but I get a lot of information and I never throw anything away. I just file it in the appropriate folder for future reference.

We aren't planning on publishing a book of charts, in the near future. Our Chairman and his wife have been ill, so I don't know what is being done on charts or the Surname Index. You have to write directly to the Surname Chairman is you want information on others researching your lines. His name is Donn Lutz, 559 Portland Way N., Galion, OH 44833. WHOOPS! Out of room, better stop.

He never learned to much about his parents, and only saw his mother a few times at an early age.

He was raised by people on a farm in Fairfield Co, Ohio until 1843, then he went to Seneca Co. and worked by the month for about one year, He then married Rebecca Huddle in 1845 and moved on to a piece of wild land, where he built a cabin and commenced life in the woods without help. He cleared this farm himself and lived there until 1864. He then purchased a place in Shelby Co., Ohio where they raised 3 children. Lydia, Amanda and Jacob.

I recently received Family Bible data from Bell Rinehart's Bible. It will be included in the next issue of Shelbyana, the Shelby County Genealogical Society newsletter (I have just become editor).

David B. Rinehart was my great grandfather's [Benjamin W. Rinehart] eldest brother, so I am adding this new Bible data into my family tree. I have used Memorial Records of Shelby County, Ohio, 1819-1975 and Marriage Records of Shelby County, Ohio, 1819-1915 to expand on the Bible data. I have not yet had a chance to consult the US Census or other records.

I found your name and surname interests in the SCGS membership list. I am enclosing both of the items I described above. I hope you can use this data.

AND I hope you'll reply with more information I can use to expand on what I have just learned. For example, it appears David Hathaway was a minister. What churches and communities did he serve? What are the stories behind his family and each of his children's families? – What occupations did they follow? Why did they choose to move to the places they did? Where did they meet and marry their companions? Who were their children? What interesting stories should we remember about them? It is so much more fun being a family historian that just a collector of names and dates.

If you're interested, I do have some more information about the Rinehart family—descendants and ancestors.

21 April 2004

Lucy,

Congratulations! A fiftieth anniversary is a proud milestone.

I sent out four letters about the Hathaway Bible information and yours is the only reply so far. I had given up, so I am delighted to receive your corrections—and especially your additions to my information.

First, here's a relationship chart. It shows that your husband and I are third cousins once removed. Belle Rinehart may have been adopted by Catherine Etherington Rinehart, but she was the natural daughter of David B. Rinehart. Belle's older sister, Martha, died in her teen years.

My grandmother, Anna Rinehart Davidson, launched me into genealogy research in 1964, when I was in high school. (She had been married fifty-three years in 1963 when Grandpa died.) Raised by neighbors for her first sixteen years, she was a family tree climber all her life. She gathered information on several branches of her family – nearly all through letter writing, since she never learned to drive a motor vehicle – but she never learned to record the information as Family Tree Maker does. She never even owned a typewriter.

Her father was Benjamin W. Rinehart, whose much older brother, David B. Rinehart, was her uncle. I was a young beginner and she told me only as much as she thought I could understand, but one important item I recall her saying was that she had a Bible from David B.

move curser TO The position in The children list where you want magaret to Be finally select People - move child To command

Rinehart with the Rinehart family information in it. She never showed me the Bible, but she gave me a copy of an 1889 History of the Rinehart Family that her uncle had written and put into the Bible. Before she died in 1971, she told me someone had "borrowed" the Bible and had not returned it, so I never got a chance to copy family information from it. (Information from other branches of her family had disappeared by that time too.) I am enclosing a copy of that David B. Rinehart narrative. The Bible is mentioned in A.B.C. Hitchcock's 1913 History of Shelby County, Ohio, in the biography of Marshall K. Coon, page 454.

From 1919 until her death in 1971, my grandmother (Anna Rinehart Davidson) lived on the farm that was home to Plum Creek M.E. Church. It was my mother's church. I was born on that farm in 1947. And the farm is still in the family (a Davidson cousin). I was there four days ago. Imagine my surprise a couple weeks ago when I found the newspaper account (the same one you mentioned) of Rev. David Hathaway's death on the traction line at about the end of the driveway on that farm! My mother, now 89, helped me locate the Fletcher homestead, and I * found on the 1900 plat map that David B. Rinehart, David Hathaway, and S.L. McCoy in 1900 owned small farms a half-mile west of the Plum Creek Church – probably rented out.

You asked me how I got the Belle Hathaway Bible information. Several years ago my deceased aunt's house burned to destruction. In the ruins were discovered several water-soaked and damaged Bibles and other family information. I have no idea how much my cousins were able to salvage and how much was destroyed, but they let me copy the family data and enclosures from M. Belle Rinehart Hathaway's Bible. I am enclosing a copy of it all.

Since January this year, I have had time to do some research on the descendants of Abraham Rinehart 1801-1876. I have not had time yet to add in the data you sent me, but I am enclosing a copy of the first three generations of my research.

It is not by plan but by sheer chance that the next issue of Shelbyana contains information on the surnames Coon, Ewing, and Green. All of those are in the above tree, though I cannot say whether all relate to your research. It is at the printer's shop now.

Your letter said you would like a copy of the Shelbyana that had my "listings" in it. I do not know what you mean by "listings." But I am enclosing a copy of our latest catalog of publications.

* This material is all "on me" since it is research I am doing for my own family, but when I know which back issues of Shelbyana you want, they are $2.50 each or $10.00 for any calendar year.

Your cousin,

Phil

History of Rinehart Family
By
David B. Rinehart
Anna, Ohio, Feb. 18, 1889

I herewith write some additional items of family interest, as this old family Bible fell into my hands in June 1888, by the payment of one dollar to my aged Aunt Molly, or "Aunt Polly" Speer as she was known.

Abraham Rinehart, Sr. (my great great grandfather) and his wife were born in Germany, were married in that country, and there were born to them at least four sons, Peter being the youngest. They emigrated to the American colonies and settled in Maryland before the Declaration of Independence, he and his sons becoming citizens by that act. He entered the army as a soldier and fell in one of the engagements, leaving his family poor in this, his adopted country. The children were let out among strangers, Peter, the youngest, my grandfather, being put out to Truxon, a shoemaker, which trade he learned. Peter went out in the late war or war of later date as a substitute for Truxon. His mother married again to a man by the name of Micener and settled on Twin Creek, Montgomery County, Ohio, where Peter visited her the last time in 1830 and where she died shortly after. At the age of 26 Peter married Barbara Bailor, daughter of Jacob & Barbara Bailor, also German by descent, in the year 1798, Dec.24th, on the birthday of the bride, and they settled in Greenbrier Co. Virginia. While there Jacob, Abraham and Hannah were born. About 1804 they moved to Fairfield Co., Ohio where 3 sons and 7 daughters were born to them, making in all five sons and eight daughters. One son and one daughter were not named. About 1826 he moved to Shelby Co. Ohio where both died. The wife at the age of 76 and grandfather at 84. Now only one daughter is alive, Molly who is 85 and very feeble. Louise Struble and Peter, if alive, are in Iowa; the others have passed to their reward.

The girls married as follows: Hannah married George Miller, who was killed in Shelby Co. by a horse July 4, 1837. She afterward married William Etherington who died at the age of 84. Catherine married Harry Struble; she died in Ill. Molly married Jacob Speer, who died in Darke Co., Ohio. She is alive at this writing. Elizabeth married Samuel Moyer who died in 1888. Louise married Jacob Struble, who moved to Iowa about 1850, do not know of the present whereabouts. Christina (or Tena) married John Johnson. She died many years ago in Logan Co. Ohio, he still lives. Barbara married Oran Strickland.

Of the sons Jacob was killed in early life in Seneca Co. at the raising of a mill by accident. His only surviving son, Noah, now lives 2 ½ miles from Sidney, Ohio. Abraham my father dropped dead in Sidney, at the age of 75. Isaac died in Fairfield Co. Ohio, near where he was born at the age of 60. Peter went to Ill. in 1837 and I know nothing further about him.

Abraham was married in 1824 to Miss Catharine Bretz, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Bretz, and there were born to them David, Anna, Barbara (now dead) Elizabeth, and Simon Peter who died in childhood. Anna married John Key and now lives in Perry township. Barbara married John Rouch; she is dead; he still lives. Elizabeth married Levi Ewing who lives in Sidney. My first companion was Julia Ann Baugher, who died leaving 2 little children, Martha who died at the age of 15, and Margaret Isabel, now wife of Rev. Hathaway, of West Cairo, O. I married again Catharine Etherington. To us were born William, who is single and lives in New Bremen, Ohio. Clara Jane married Samuel McCoy, who now lives in Anna, O. Anna married Marshall K. Coon near Hardin, Ohio where they now live.

Additional history.

William A. Rinehart was married Sept. 15, 1891 to Elizabeth Watson and died Oct. 29, 1895 leaving two children, Margaret and Oscar. Anna Key died Dec. 18, 1898. Noah Rinehart died David B. Rinehart died Feb. 27, 1900. John Key died Mar. 26, 1900.

The family of Jacob Bailor, thro whom this book descended. Jacob Bailor is the first party to whom I can trace it. At his death, 1825, Barbara, his daughter bought it at his sale for $10.00. After her death it became the property of Jacob Speer who was her only child able to read it, but some jealousies sprang up and Catherine Struble got possession of it and extracted $1.00 for the book from them. It was decided that I should become its owner and by the payment of $1.00. It fell into my hands in 1888. I desire this book to continue in my home and then fall into the hands of my children or grandchildren. To my best knowledge this book has been in the family, on grandmother Rinehart's side of the house since 1740 and since her death in 1848. It has been in the hands of her children nearly 150 years.

I desire this book now to continue in my home while I have a home or my wife has a home; then I want it to go to that one who can use it (if there is such a one). To the best of my knowledge this book has been in the family on my grandmother Rinehart's side of the house since 1740, and since her death, about 1848, May it bless many souls in its perusal yet.

[Besides a few scraps marked with numbers of Bible verses, this Bible contains three inserts. The first insert is an undated, unidentified newspaper clipping:]

Death of Samuel L. McCoy

Relatives in this city received word announcing the death of Mr. Samuel L. McCoy, which occurred at the National Soldiers Home at Sawtelle, Calif., on Sunday, Oct. 3, at 4:30 o'clock.

Mr. McCoy had been a resident at the home for several years, and had been in failing health for the past year. He had been confined to the hospital for several weeks. He was Civil War Veteran and was well known to many people here, as this was his former home. His wife, Mrs. Clara Rinehart McCoy, preceded him in death a number of years ago. He was buried at the Soldiers Home where he died, with full military honors, on Oct 6, at 9 o'clock.

[October 3 fell on a Sunday in 1926, 1937 and 1943. The second insert, also a newspaper clipping has a poem on one side and a series of notices for church services on the other:]

EVERY-DAY POEMS – BY GEORGE ELLISTON

BIRTHDAY

I never hear the bells ring out
On a near Christmas night
But that I think of One who walked
And shone with his own light.

I never hear the children cry
Their happiness and glee
But that I vision ancient days,
A boy in Galilee.

For me He moves in fields at dusk,
I see his patient face
When I go home from town at night,
When I say table grace.

For Christmas always was to me
His birthday, oh and more,
A time of deep communion with Him
Through giving of my store.

To every beggar, every man
Whom joy has cast aside,
His birthday is a time to give
What Fate may have denied.

A time of love when all the world
Will take a helping hand,
In His white name as it is given,
Will take and understand.

Miss Elliston broadcasts her poems every Thursday at 7 p. m. Eastern standard time, from Station WSAI, wave length 361.2 meters, 830 kilocycles.

[The third insert is a white sheet of stationery-sized paper, hand-written on both sides in tiny script. From the date and other biographical information, one good guess would say the author was David B. Rinehart, as it was about this time that he went into the ministry.]

Christmas Eighteen hundred & 61

We have come together this evening not to spend an hour in riotous revel – not merely for the purpose of partaking of those bounteous provisions which our generous friends have spread for us – not for pure pastime to idle away a few moments and then return to our homes to forget the scene like the door on its hinges come & go and remain the same. This occasion by God's blessing may be a green spot in the memories of all both young and old to which the minds may recur with pleasure as each revolving year brings round another Christmas eve. In order that this may be the case – that we may reap all the benefit possible from the circumstances attending our convention here to-night At all pay earnest heed to whatever may be said by those who shall address you.

We are glad to-night that we are privileged to behold so many of the young people of this neighborhood with their health – blooming cheeks, their sparkling eyes, and hearts no doubt beating high and joyously. The season of childhood, the days of careless laughter and merry song, when the world appears all overladen with happiness, unclouded with even a prospect of sorrow, the path strewn all along with flowers – every hilltop glowing with the golden rays of youth's morning sun, each landscape carefree into mellow distance tinted with the glorious hues of hope the heavens' roses, with radiant rainbows of promise – this season I say is the most ersting [?] of the days of men. Alas! That these happy anticipations should be unrealized! That as we approach on this flowery path way the thorns that are hid in its blooming beds should pierce so sharply. That the brilliant beams of light that have led us on so often flash out not from the source of all glory but from the deceptive haunts of vice. "A false though brightly beaming ray, kindled and beautified only to betray." That the rainbow of promise should prove a deception and a snare, that the fruits our longing eyes so long have dwelt upon should turn to ashes on our life, Such however is the result when the heart turns not to heaven, that upper world, in search of that bliss whose fount of pure joy may be tasted in this. While it is true that youth is the springtime of life, it is no less true that it is the seed time of life. While the tender blades are springing up around us it is often a difficult matter to detect the noxious weeds to distinguish between them and the useful plant so that we may know which to preserve & which destroy.

If this be true and experience of each succeeding spring will prove it the safe course is while the soil is yet in a state of nature unencumbered by briars & thorns to plant therein good seed. The book of God tells us that whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap – and every seed bringeth forth fruit after his kind. The farmer who goes forth on the clear spring morning to scatter the precious grain upon the well prepared soil, expects when the harvest is come to reap a crop of that same kind of grain which he sows. A great many children here have read in the school books the dream of Hafed who while grief was weighing down his eyelids, and his heart filled with murmurings against God for enacting unchanging laws to govern the Universe was in dreams transported to a world of chance….

While this might be the case in chance world, in God's world it can not be. How important then that the seed sown should be good seed in order that the crop reaped therefrom may be a good crop. This is the object of the S. S., to plant in the hearts of the children the seeds of piety, of virtue, of religion, that it may bring forth abundantly to the honor and glory of God. That they may reap here below all the advantages of godlings which is profitable to all things and in the end everlasting life. Can it be done? Will those who are disinterestedly striving do good by teaching the young feet to tread the path of peace be disappointed and see no right result? Let the history of the Sunday school answer – let the wise and good men now laboring in the cause of man's redemption who were first awakened in the Sabbath school answer – let the thousands who now sing the praises of their Redeemer in the world above answer. The reply would be labor on with diligence the Lord will own your toils and crown your efforts.

Christmas eve! The mind instantly on the wings of thought fly up the stream of time more than ten centuries. Over 1800 years gone by while shepherds watched their flocks by night, the heavenly heralds fresh from the fields of eternal life bore the joyous tidings to a sin-defiled world that a Savior was born.

Peter Cotelle was a Frenchman. He resided in the easterly part of the West Parish, in a small gambrel-roofed house, embowered in trees and shrubbery—an exquisite little place which he took pleasure in adorning. He was a tinker, shrewd in making a trade, and it is said that he would take advantage of his presumed imperfect knowledge of English, to drive a hard bargain. He also kept a small grocery store. He has descendants.

CANNON.

This is not a common name in Barnstable, or in any part of New England. John Cannon came over in the Fortune in 1621. He was not of Plymouth in 1627. Whither he removed or went hence is unknown. There was a Robert Cannon of New London, in 1678, and one of the same name in Essex County in 1680, whose wife's name was Sarah. Mr. Savage states that there was one of the name in Sandwich as early as 1650. Capt. John Cannon was of Norwalk, Conn., 1750.

The earliest record of the name in Barnstable is April 12, 1691, where Joanna Cannon joined the church. On the following Sabbath her children, John, Philip, Timothy, Nathan, and Elizabeth, were baptized. Of these, Timothy is again named on the records. He married, Nov. 9, 1711, Elizabeth, widow of Isaac
